Down a long winding road
. . . called future.
A road, where we must decide to stop or proceed,
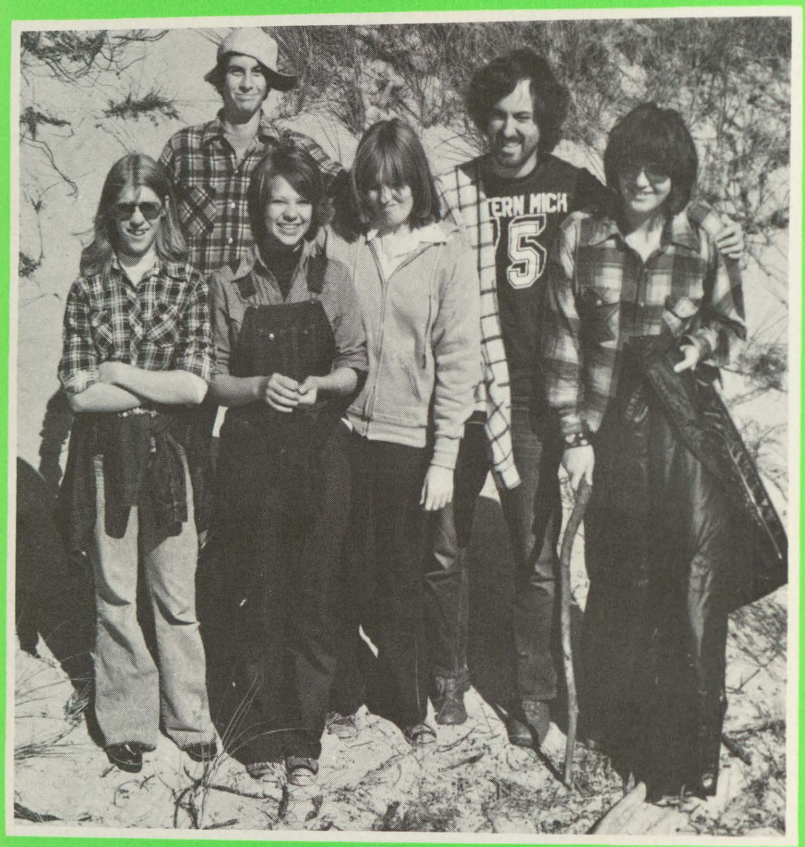
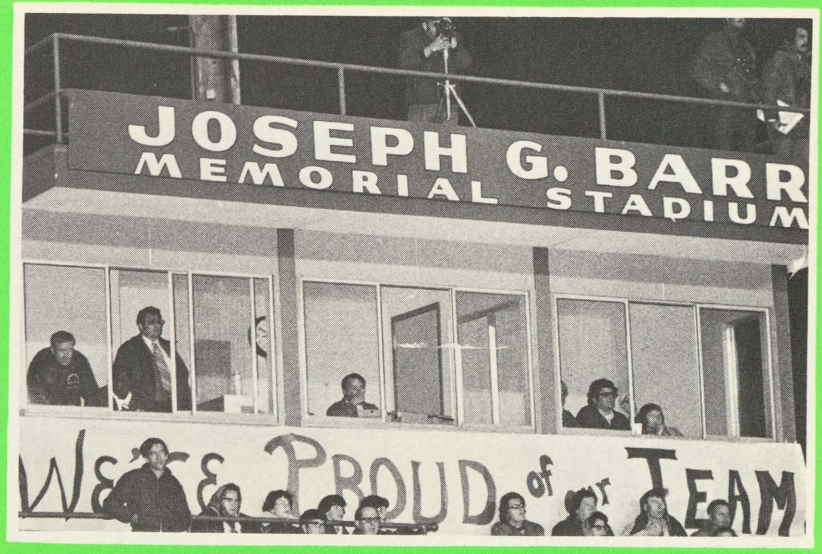
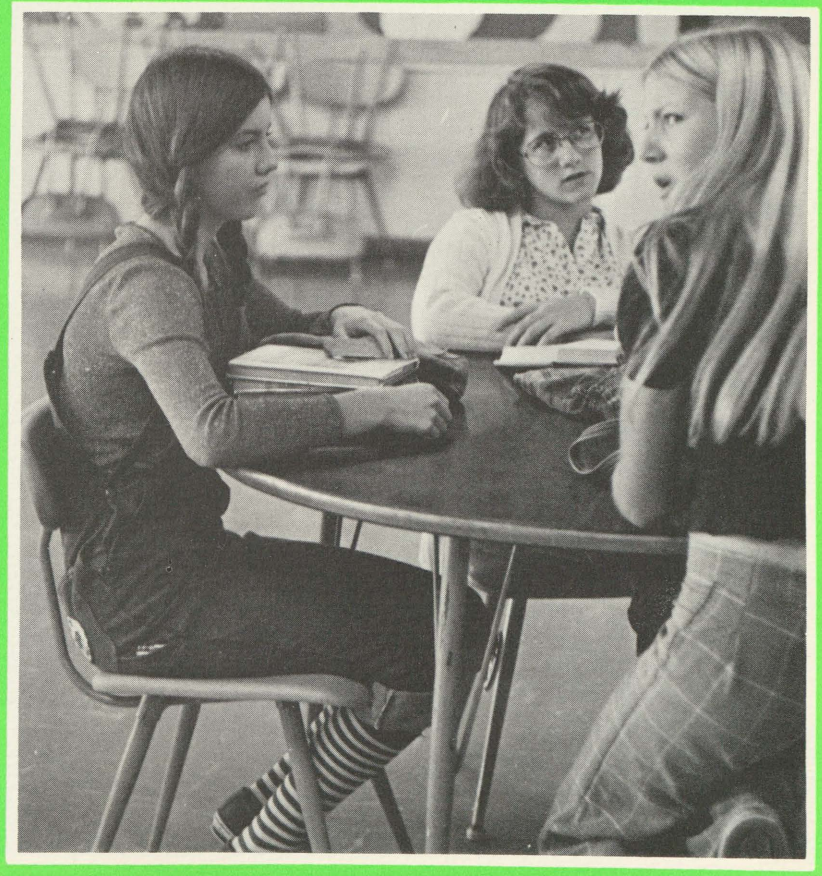
or just what fork to take.



There, yesterdays are forgotten . . .,
Todays yet remembered . . .
and tomorrows unknown.
A bright untouched future
In my future,
I am no ordinary name or number





I am somebody
I will be happy
but again . . .
Yesterday will knock at my door
Difficult stages of a child, of an adult.

I cannot explain clearly,
as to where I am headed . . .
For tomorrow is something new and my future my be today.

"74" Knights Duplicate 1-8 Season from "73"

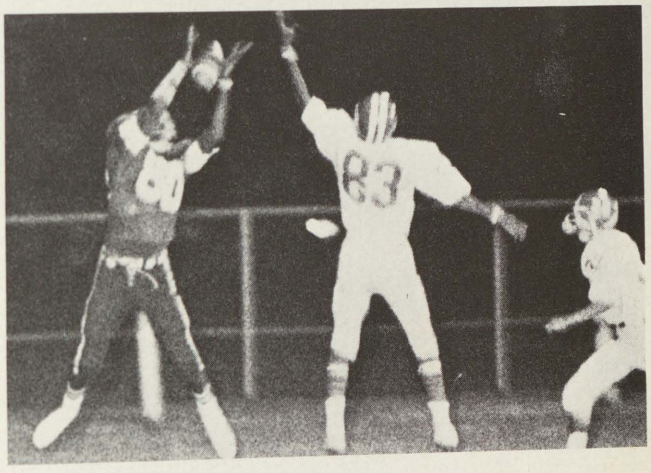
Defense, Offense Click As Knights Sparkle in Opening Game Victory

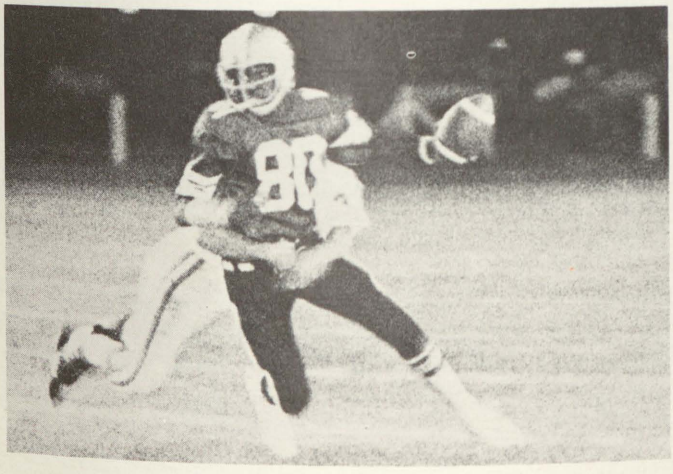
Buena Vista	30
Willow Run	0

School wasn't in session, but the football season was. The Knights traveled to Willow Run on September 18, and beat the Flyers 30-0. It was the first time Buena Vista ever defeated the Southern squad.

St. Peter and Paul	36
Buena Vista	6

It was a feudal war between the Knights and the Crusaders, with the Crusaders surviving the battle, 36-6. Buena Vista had an unusally large crowd on their home field, but could no cash in on the vocal support.





Bay City John Glenn	21
Buena Vista	8

Buena Vista had trouble holding on to the ball, and Bay City John Glenn took advantage of this in recording a 21-8 victory. The Knights had a chance to go into the locker room ahead, but fumbled away the chance.

BV Absorbs Defeat from WPC Foes Eisenhower, MacArthur, Mt. Pleasant

Eisenhower	44
Buena Vista	14

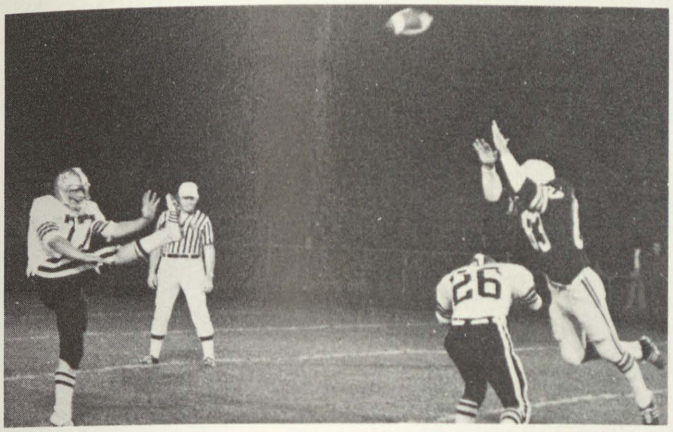
The Knights played the Commanders tough through the first half on touch downs by Dave Masud, Buena Vista's MVP, but the White Pine Conference champions prevailed, posting a 44-14 win.

Douglass MacArthur	33
Buena Vista	8

Douglas MacArthur entertained the Knights at their Homecoming and out played the Buena Vista Squad enroute to a 33-8 victory. Bill Bailey kept the Knights from further with long, consistent, punting.

Mt. Pleasant	31
Buena Vista	8

Buena Vista played in their third Homecoming in a row. This time it was the Knights Homecoming and the Mt. Pleasant Oilers went North with a 31-8 victory under their belts.

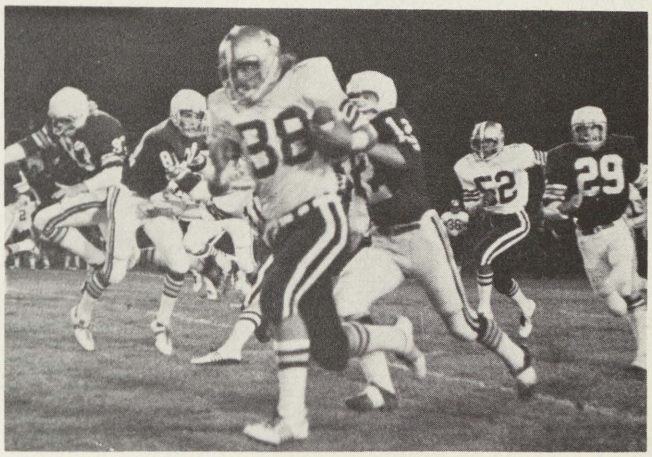


Bridgeport	35
Buena Vista	0

Arch for Bridgeport, took advantage of a sputtering offensive attack exhibited by the Knights and ran up a large half-time lead enroute to a 36-0 victory. It was the first time the Knights failed to score.

Bay City All-Saints	46
Buena Vista	0

Bay City All-Saints traveled to Saginaw for the final home game of the "74" season and routed the Knights 46-0. Fumbles and mistakes were the Knights downfall in the second shutout of the season.



Oscoda	32
Buena Vista	0

The Knights finished off a 1-8 season on the short end of a 32-0 score at the hands of Oscoda. The Knights were outscored badly, 278-74, throughout the season. They will be looking to bolster that attack in 75.

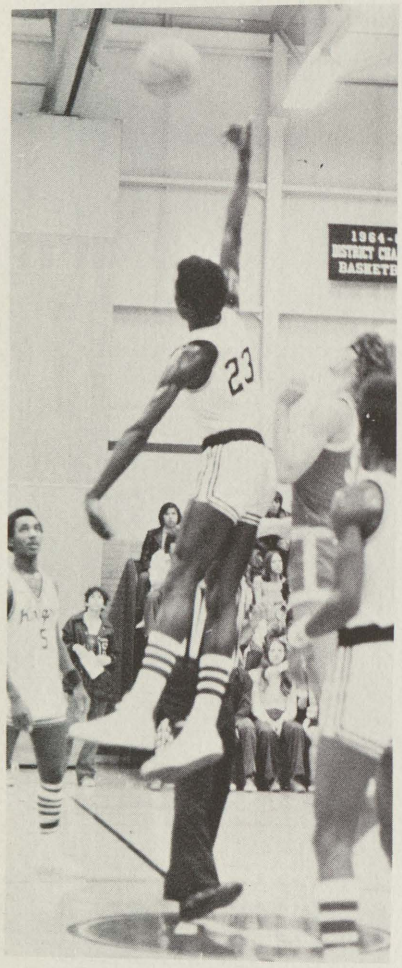
Knights Use Explosive Intimidating



Junior Mike Plowden jumps center to begin another basketball campaign.

Larry Woods and Grady Shipman composed an explosive backcourt that carried the Knights through the 74-75 season. Woods and Shipman both had the moves and soft shot needed for a successful guard, along with third man Ernest Matthews.

Backcourt, Defense in 74-75 Season

A frightening defense backed up this trio of guards. Melvin Benbow and Kenny Haynes were very adept at snagging rebounds and stopping opponents at the baseline. But the big surprise was 6'5" Micheal Plowden, who was a psychological as well as physical barrier.

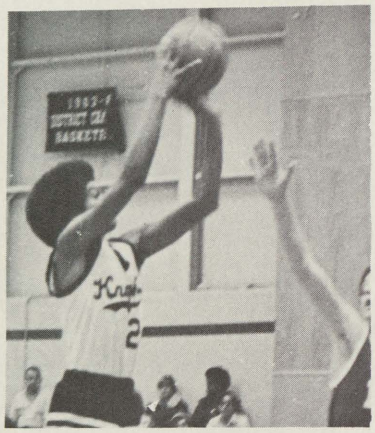
JV Enjoys Another Fine Season Under Second-Year Coach Burgman



Again the JV squad was filled with depth. Sophomores Mark Young, Chuckie Bell, Joel Price, Harvey Marve, and Anthony Foster combined with newcomers Phil Gissendanner and Wayne Farris. A mid season injury to Billy Phillips against Mt. Pleasant put him out for the remainder of the schedule.

Due to the reduction of millage, therefore, the lack of funds, all freshman sports were cancelled, a-long with golf, cross-country, wrest-ling, tennis, baseball, and track. Girl's basketball which was to be added this year was dropped. We are looking forward to the return of these sports in the yearbook next year.

Despite Cancelled Bahama Trip, High Hopes Still Held for Seniors

Due to the economy situation and a lack of interest on the part of the Seniors, their planned trip to the Bahamas fell through, but other suitable activities will make up for it.

A Senior prom and banquet at Bintz Apple Mountain will highlight their year with money raised from raffles and sales held during the year.

Queen Connie finds Homecoming 'exciting and Rewarding'

Connie Nix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nix was crowned 1974 Homecoming Queen Friday, October 18, 1974.

Connie's activities at Buena Vista include President of Future Teachers, Pom Pom girl, and Pep Club.

Her views on Homecoming were "the excitement of the crowd and friends looking at you, floats competing and wondering which one will win, and watching the band play."

Connie was crowned by last year's Homecoming Queen, Sheila Robinson.

Senior Class Officers Active in Many Clubs

Heading the Senior class for the second consecutive year, is Kimber Rance, along with vice-president Vernice Robinson, secretary, Helen Ganschow, and treasurer, Craig Ban.

Kimber has been an active student in many clubs, including Biology Club, Afro Club, and Student Senate. Vernice was class treasurer in her Junior year, and has been involved in Future Secretaries and the Pep Club. Helen is a member of the National Honor Society, German Club, and Eco-Impact. Craig is also a member of the Biology Club, and has been active in the Ski Club.

Projects and Activities

Focus on Student Interests

This year, as in other years, the Student Senate did everything they could to get the students' interests, activities, and projects off and rolling throughout the year. In order to get students to participate in school activities, social interest was most important. Dances and assemblies that the Student Senate sponsored got students together for a chance to get involved in school activities. Some other activities of Student Senate were: hosting exchange days with several area high schools, running a school store, arranging homecoming programs, and sponsoring a foster child in Brazil. President is Bonnie Dombrowski and advisors are Mr. Hetherman and Mr. Hogan.

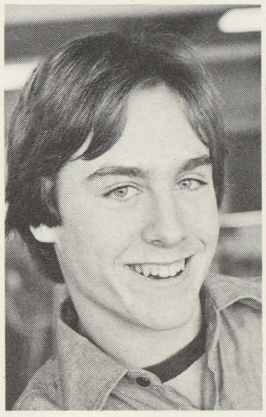
Club Members Get It Together Wigh German Sing-A-Longs

Looking ahead to springtime activities are the ambitious Press Club members. That's the time when most, if not all, of the Club members get involved in their activities.

A Spring Banquet was held where a single talented Journalist was presented with the Henderson Award.

Picnics and Tiger baseball games are also some of the activities attained from the winter harvests of candy and mixed nut sales.



Press Club Gets into the Spring of Things

Under the supervision of Mrs. Rosella Schmitt, the German Club celebrated Christmas by caroling in Frankenmuth, and met at the members' homes for German sing-a-longs and meetings while planning other activities.

Officers of the club are: Helen Ganschow, President; Tom Hetzner, Vice-President; Jody Gotham, Secretary; Jane Hetzner, Treasurer.

The young journalists kept the school informed with the latest news and sports stories published in the bi-weekly newspaper.

The classes newest undertaking this year was sponsoring the first annual White Pine Conference Newspaper Day.

Club Makes Slaves Out of Members

Camping out at Sleeping Bear Dunes and tulip and tree planting are yearly activities of the Biology Club. This year they broke the traditions and had "Slave Days." Staff Appreciates New Room Facilities

Staff members of B.V.'s Chivalry yearbook have gained the advantages of a new room this year. Wider ranges of facilities with which to work are closets and shelves to store materials, a sink, larger tables to layout pages, and to add to these the central location of the room is ideal. With the aid of these things, much progress was made to improve the book in design and layout. Staff members are guided and directed by Editor Karen Kleiber, and Advisor Mr. Leach.

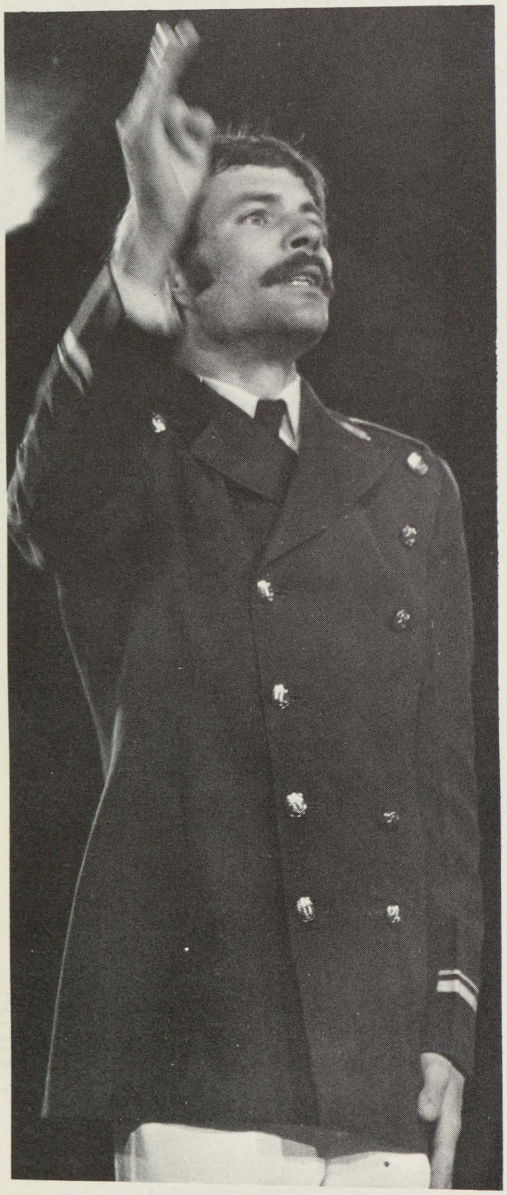
New Outlooks in Mind for Band

Nothing adds to the excitement and enthusiasm of the games more than the B.V. Band.

Concentrating on formation and marching techniques are Mr. Gore's main goals.

In order to get new uniforms, a T.V. was raffled off at their Christmas Concert.



Mr. Harry Gore gives the image of dedication to the band while directing.

Richard and Henry prove the beat goes on.

Spanish Club Expresses Culture Through Projects

This year the Spanish Club at B.V. tried every way possible to express the Spanish cultures and accents in their major projects. These include a Spanish dinner and Christmas Fiesta, complete with piniata's. Other activities were Spanish pastry sales made by the members, candy sales, and a Christmas toy drive. Advisor is Mrs. Kimmerly, President: Ann Krolczyk, Secretary; Julia Cadena, and Treasurer, Pam Hoffman.

Activities, Projects Center on Environment, in Eco-Impact Club

Among the many new and inspiring clubs formed this year, is Eco-Impact. Advisor Mr. Becker's basic idea for forming the club was to experiment with enviromental projects. These projects include "feather earrings" made from the feathers of different kinds of birds. The creative club also had twine planter and bird feeder sales that the members made themselves.

New Cheers, Uniforms, Advisor, Give Varsity Squad New Image

This year the Varsity Cheerleaders presented a brand new image. Along with new cheers, the cheerleaders purchased new uniforms and worked under a new advisor. The squad also decided to bring back the original school color. Their new uniforms are now royal blue instead of the previous navy blue. The new advisor is Miss Caren Jones, a 1974 graduate of Michigan Sate University.

New Uniforms Enliven J.V. Cheerleaders

Reaping the benefits of many fund-raising projects, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders purchased new uniforms during the basketball season. The uniforms were the result of their earnings made by selling household products along with conducting a raffle for the Christmas concert presented by the school band.

Under the direction of the new advisor, Miss Caren Jones, the cheerleaders progressed toward quality and unity in their cheers.

Many Basketball halftimes have been highlighted by the ability and determination of the Pom Pom girls. They arrange their own numbers and music to fit together, and practice the basic principles of unity, quality, and most important, rhythm.

Officers of the squad are: Advisor, Mr. Bishop; Captain, Sharon Maxey; Co-Captain, Viola McGlothin; Treasurer, Michelle Heilig; Secretary, Pam Lyle.

Comprising the rest of the squad are; Debbie Cooper, Debra Cooper, Loranne Gissendanner, Elaine Hollis, Alice Johnson, Shirley Rockett, Gloria Ross, Daphne Self, Carolyn Smith, Gail Smith, Deidra Thompson, Linda Vasquez, Vivian Young, Wessiler Robinson.

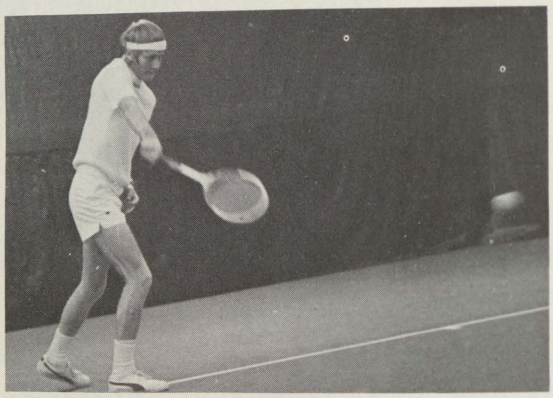
Spring Sports Funds Not Available
Tennis Team Finances Own Club

With the advising and directing of Mr. Richard Bellanco, many ambitious members of the tennis team, formed a tennis club this year.

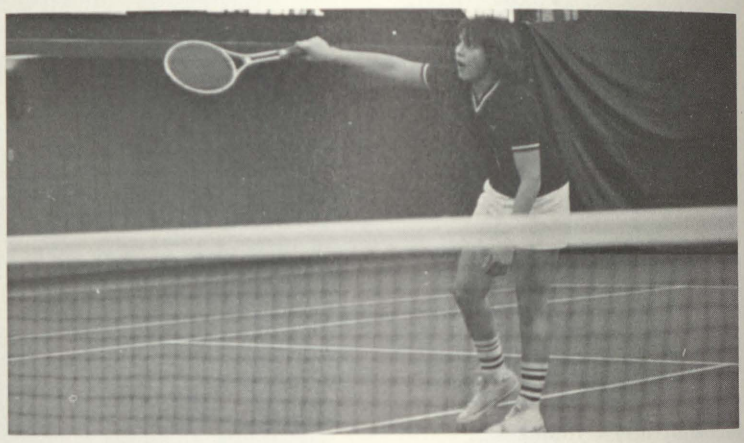
Without the aid of school funds for a spring sports program, the team financed its own activities by having candy sales.

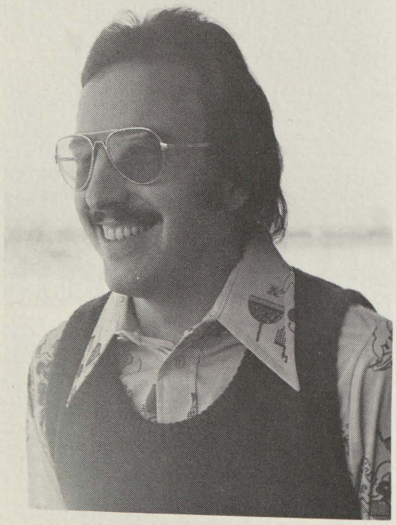
Practice was held at Bay Valley.

Club President was Bill Gutzwiller.

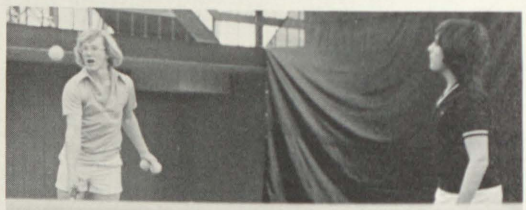


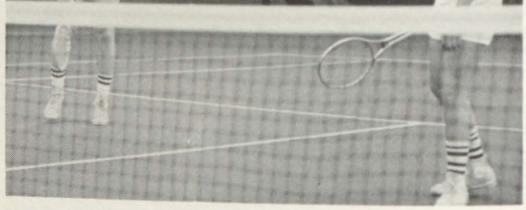
Bill uses a swift backhand swing.



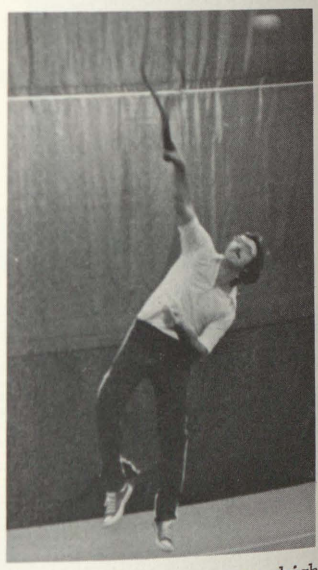


Advisor: Richard Ballanco





Richard Russell meets face to face with the ball while Dave Barnes stands by and awaits his reaction.



Mr. Bellanco uses high stretching techniques.

Wintertime—Ski Club Season

Even though most of us regard winter as the long cold season, Ski Club members make the best of the situation. As long as there's snow on the slopes the Ski Club remains active. Some of their events were venturing to Caberfae, Crystal Mt., and several area ski lodges. To help finance their outings they sold candy canes and B.V. Mugs. In January they sold tickets for a "Snow Job." Those who bought a ticket would pick a day for the Club members to shovel their snow. If there wasn't any snow that day then they lost the deal and their money.

Advising and instructing the members is Mr. Tom Hetherman while Ed Zuzula is President.

Freshman Cheerleaders Make the Most of What They Got

Even though the Freshman Cheerleaders don't have their own team to cheer for, they still put in a lot of time and effort for the two games they can cheer for. J.V. Cheerleaders allowed them to cheer at two games, home and away, for the first half of each game.

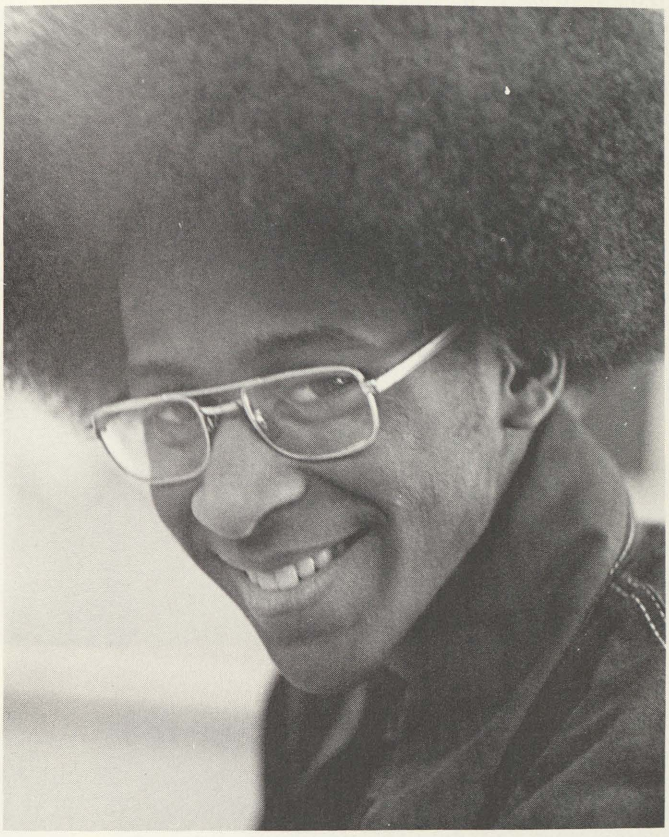
Junior Class Officers



President--Perry Farrell

This year's Junior Class has been very successful this year with taking first place in float competition.

Other activities such as the Talent Show and Junior-Senior Banquet are also made possible by the class of '76.

Vice-President--Joyce Gates

Secretary--Kim Cooper

Treasurer--Annie Farris

Soph's Set Sights On '77

Catherine Hoogs, President

Many projects were planned for the Sophomore Class. They planned to hold a Taco Sale, Bake Sales, and a picnic at Wickes Park for Sophomores at the end of the year. They are also organizing a Play Night.

Female Leadership Rules Over Freshman Class

This year's Freshman Class started out by taking third place in the Homecoming float competition. Other activities and projects they plan to organize is a play night, in which every one comes to the school on a certain night and play basketball, volleyball, ping-pong, and other activities.

They also plan to sell candy to finance this year's events.

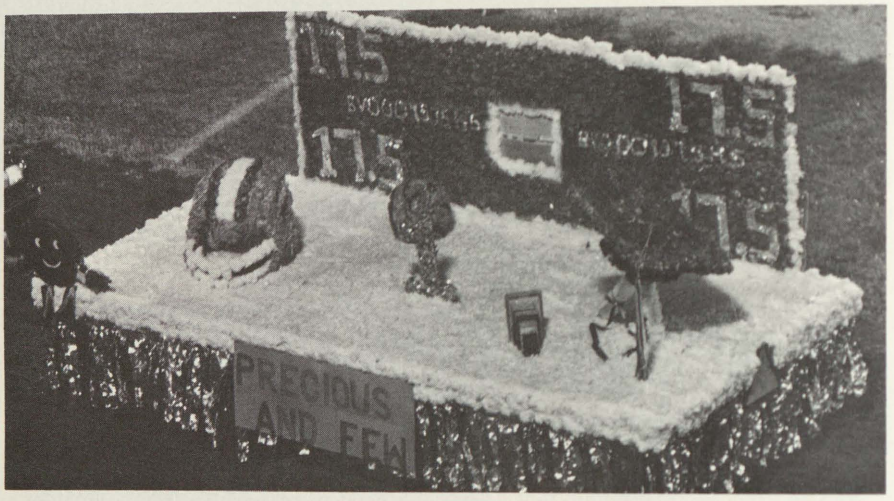
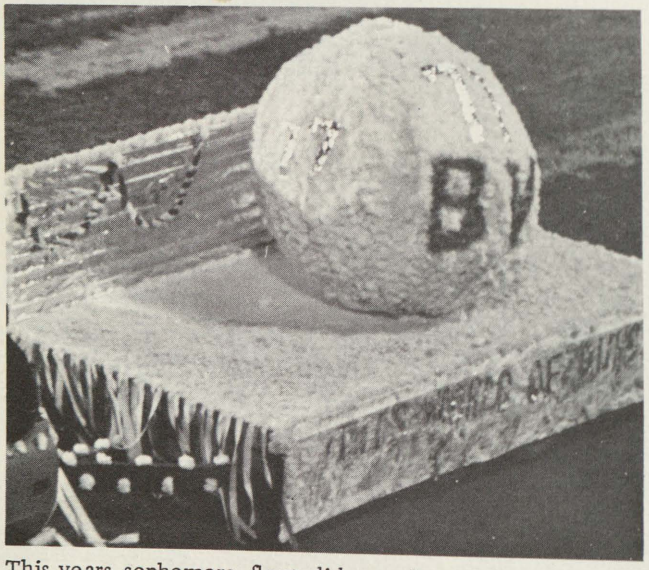
Homecomings, Are

The few Seniors who did work, worked very hard to produce their float in three weeks.



Hard work, and quality of construction are just a few words describing this years senior float.



This years sophomore float did not place, but with a class so energetic, imagine the years to come.

A good attitude and a happy face make homecoming one of our happier times.

They Ever the Same?

Even though they did not place, the freshman class did prove they have good talent to put to use.

Exchange student, Theres Bhend, caught on quite fast, as how to make a float.

First place award went to this year's junior class for their hard work and meaningful float.

This year's faculty section is attempting something different. Instead of the usual formal portraits, we are using candid shots followed by brief statements concerning the individual. These statements center on subjects such as classes taught and educational background, extra curricular activities, and hobbies.

Information was obtained from questionnaires that were filled out by those teachers who wish to be in the 1975 Chivalry.

Those members of the faculty not appearing in the 1975 Chivalry, failed to return their questionnaire.

"As I'm looking back through all those years, the door, I'll close behind I see the faces of my peers, grasping today, tomorrow yet to find. There'll be times, I'm sure to forget, the happiest ones, I'll never regret, Another year has passed by again, can I say I knew you when? Today is just beginning and tomorrow just ahead, I closed today's door opening tomorrow's instead . . ."

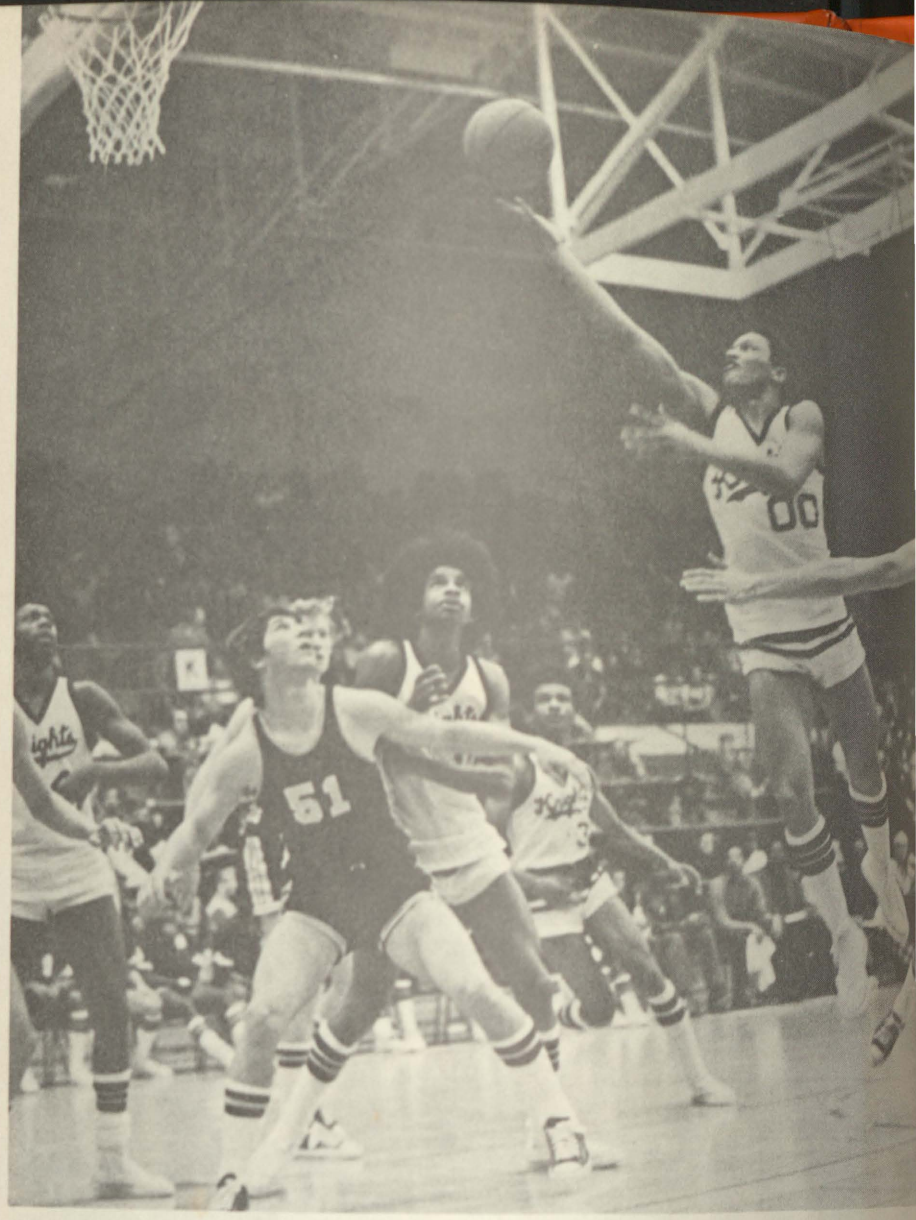
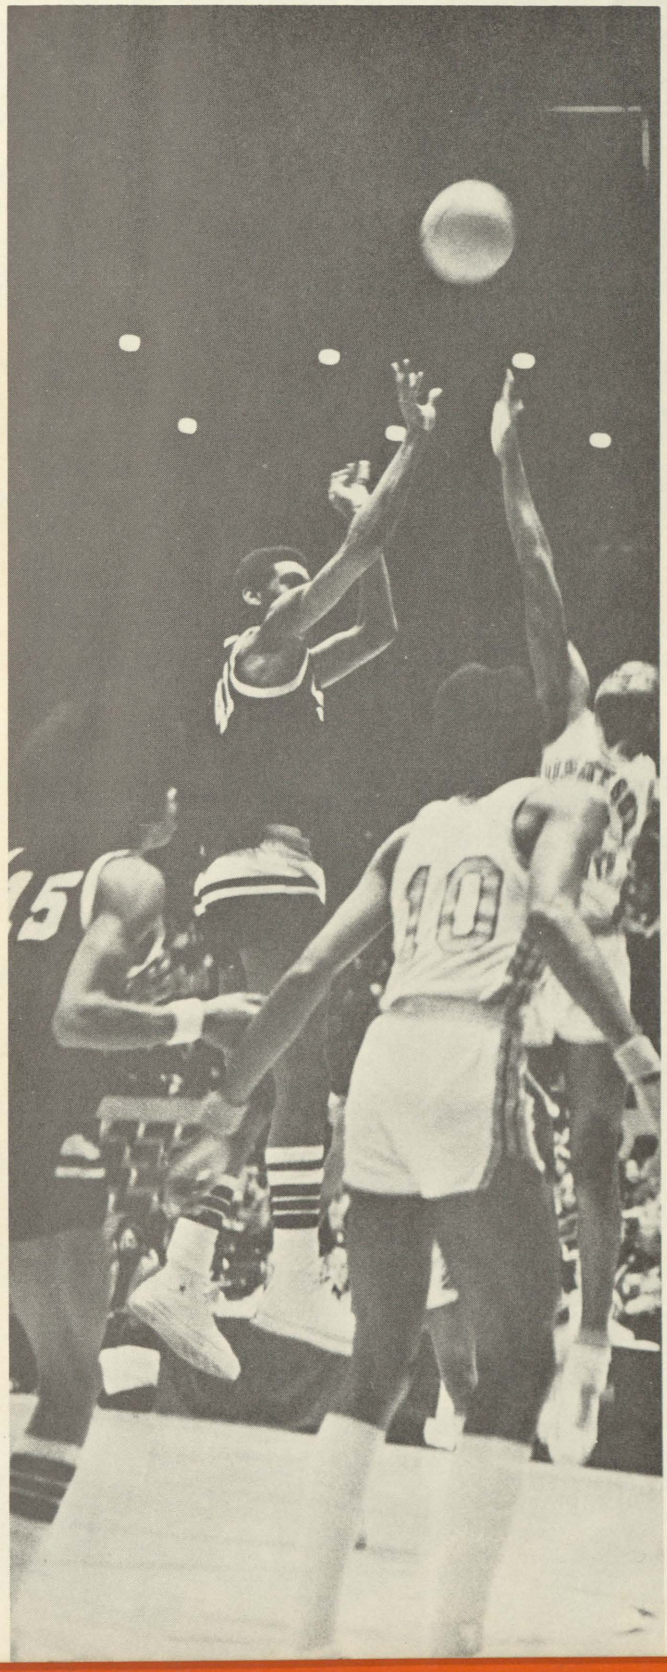
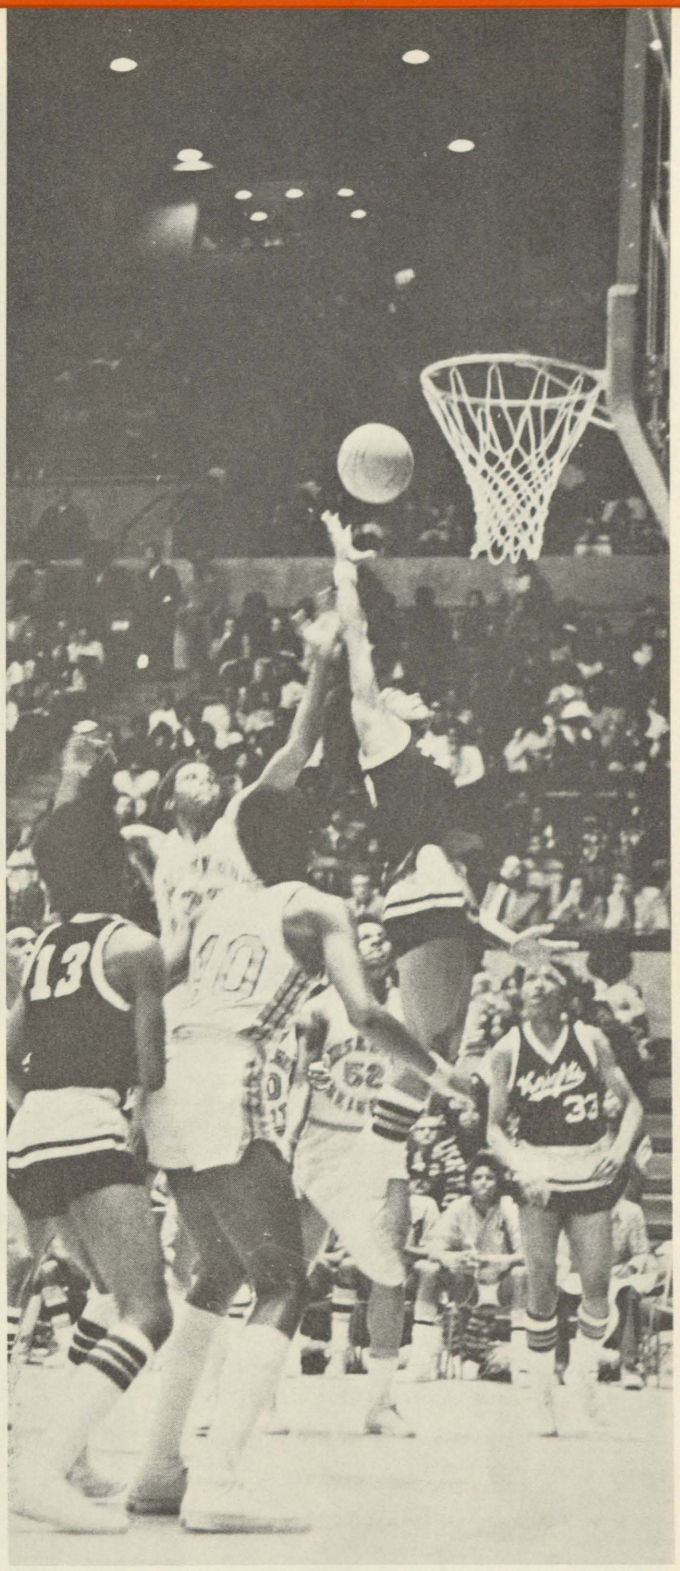
Knights Top Oilers In Overtime Thriller



All-stater Mark Williams drives for a lay-up against defender John Weisenburger (51) of Mount Pleasant. Williams finished the quadruple overtime with 29 points. Before he scored the decisive point in the 62-59 victory, Williams missed three crucial shots in the earlier overtime periods.

Knights Sky Over Heights in Semi's



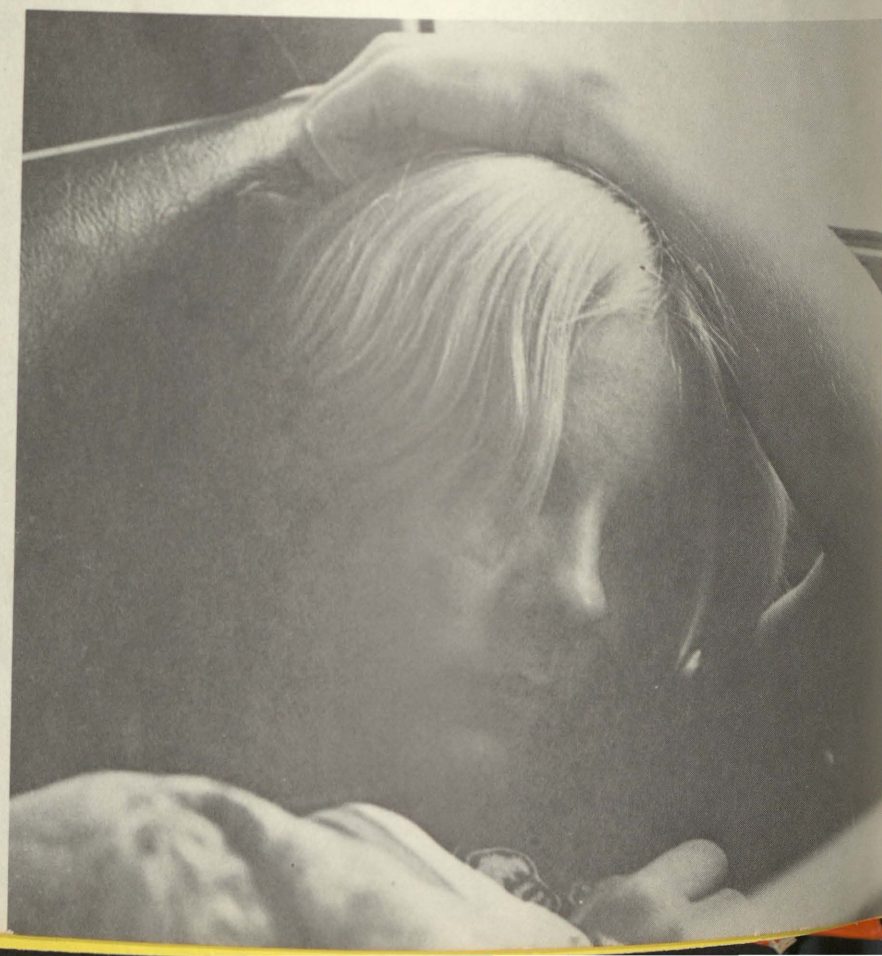


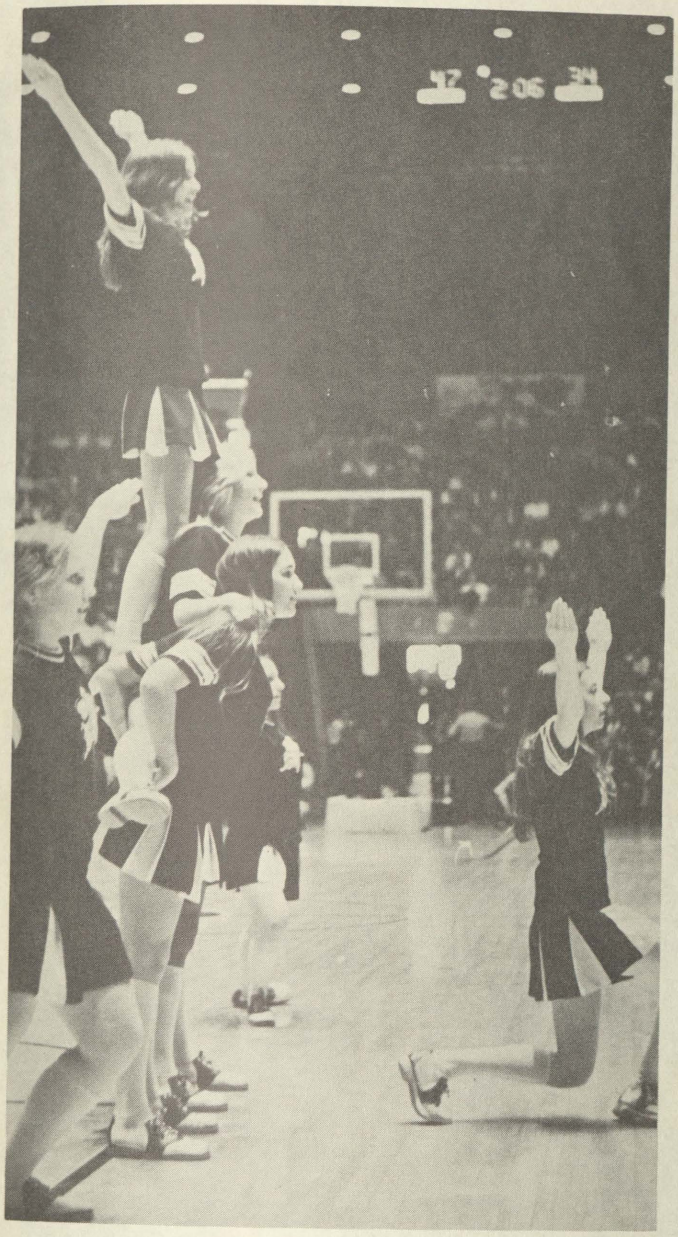
Woodley Scores. . . . Benbow Rebounds

(Above) Marcel Hendricks and Terry Woodley jump for possession of the ball to start the semi-final game against Muskegon Heights. Hopes, like Woodley, were sailing high at that time. (Right) Two hours later the excitement was over and so was the joy, as exemplified by the face of Junior cheerleader Mary Kowalski.

In the beginning . . . High Hopes

In the end . . . . . Disappointment





Faithful in their presence and enthusiasm throughout the season, the Varsity cheerleaders display their skills in Crisler Arena.

Senior James Luckyado soars to the hoop as two Muskegon defenders follow in pursuit.
